IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH
CENTRAL DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

DANIEL JOSEPH SIDDALL,

Defendant.

MEMORANDUM DECISION AND ORDER

Case No. 2:08CR597DAK

Judge Dale A. Kimball

---

Defendant Daniel Joseph Siddall has filed a Motion for Early Termination of Supervised Release [Docket No. 41]. On July 22, 2009, Judge J. Thomas Greene of this court sentenced Defendant to 84 months incarceration with the Bureau of Prisons and 36 months of supervised release. Judge J. Thomas Greene then recused, and the case was assigned to the undersigned judge. Defendant began serving his supervised release on February 14, 2014. Therefore, he has completed almost two years of his three-year term of supervised release.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e)(1), after considering the factors set forth in Section 3553(a)(1), (a)(2)(B), (a)(2)(C), (a)(2)(D), (a)(4), (a)(5), and (a)(6), the court may terminate a term of supervised release “at any time after the expiration of one year of supervised release . . . if it is satisfied that such action is warranted by the conduct of the defendant released and the interest of justice.” The factors to be considered in Section 3553(a) are those factors to be considered in imposing a sentence, including “the nature and circumstances of the offense and the history and characteristics of the defendant,” the applicable sentencing guidelines and any policy statements issued by the Sentencing Commission, and the need for the sentence imposed to promote respect for the law, to provide just punishment, to deter other criminal conduct, and to provide the defendant with needed services. See 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a).

Defendant’s motion for early termination of supervised release is supported by his probation officer. Defendant has met all the conditions of his supervised release, has been fully compliant, and has had good communication with his probation officer. Defendant has maintained full time employment during his supervised release and states that he learned the value of working hard every day. Defendant has married while on supervised release and has a strong family and community support system. Defendant’s letter demonstrates that he has turned his life around. He has worked hard to become a responsible citizen to improve his own life and the lives of those around him. Based on Defendant’s conduct, the court finds that an early termination of supervised release is warranted.

Accordingly, the court grants Defendant’s motion for early termination of supervised release. The court requests the Clerk of Court to mail this order to Defendant at the address provided on his motion.

DATED this 20th day of January, 2016.
